Committee Reports

Activities Committee

- Herding fun day is coming up on May 15th. Bob will send details to Paula to send out to membership.
- Weight pull practice is going well. Barb Gage is looking at finding a new location for practices and pulls. There will be additional dates.
- There were about 12 dogs at the wellness clinic in March.

2010 Specialty – Kathy Mackai

- Application in to AKC and approved
- Becky is hospitality/potluck chair
- Jim Shea is grounds chair
- Jill Crisp is trophy chair
- Gary and Pat Griffin are heading up the auction
- The conformation judges have picked up assignments at the all-breed show, so we can share expenses

Unfinished Business

- None

New Business

- The Atlanta club has asked SCA for approval to have their specialty on the Sunday of our specialty weekend. The board had some discussion on this. Jill motioned that we not object to Atlanta moving their specialty to that date. Todd Maidl seconded, and all approved

The next board meeting is:

- May 12th is the next club meeting

- June 2nd is the next board meeting

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Paula Maidl

Samoyed Association of Minneapolis & St. Paul Draft – Approval
Pending
General Club Meeting Minutes: 3/10/10

Larry Mackai called the meeting to order at 7:20 p.m.

Laura Wolfe motioned to approve the minutes as published, this was seconded by Jim Shea, and approved by all.

Committee Reports

MPDBA

- There was discussion on MPDBA membership, and the pros and cons of continuing membership. A motion was made to not rejoin, and was unanimously approved.

Legislative Liaison: Paul Holtzlider

- Paul gave an update on the bill that was recently defeated by MN legislators. He will send out a summary via email to membership.

2010 Specialty: Kathy Mackai

- The paperwork has been submitted and approved for our 2010 specialties
- Jim Shea has agreed to proof read the premium if Mackais are out of town
- Larry and Kathy will ask Rolan Anderson if he would be willing to be the chief ring steward

- Bob Gage, Todd Maidl and Paul Holtzlider will be in charge of the Friday night grill dinner
- Jill Crisp is in charge of trophies
- We still need an coordinator for the Thursday afternoon potluck (Jill will help)

Activities/Education: Barb Gage

- Weight pull practices and competitions have been very successful and well-attended
- Our annual dog walk/picnic meeting will be held on Saturday, July 10th this year, from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.
- Upcoming events include weight pull practice, wellness clinic, herding fun day, and a weight pull competition
- GJ brought up discussion around the possibility of our club putting on an all-breed agility competition as a fund raiser. This has been very successful for other clubs, but requires a large number of volunteers. GJ will do some additional research and put together a formal request to present to the club.
- RDO day will be moved to the second weekend in September (now on the same weekend as the Des Moines show). It will be at the same location as last year.

Old Business

- The board made the decision to keep the $25 reimbursement to club members whose dogs complete a beginning obedience class.

New Business

- There was interest from club members in having more 'programs' as part of our club meetings. Some program ideas were:
 - Toxicology speaker
 - Someone from BART
 - Dr. Spong speaking on hip dysplasia or tic-borne illnesses
- Some of the club members were going to speak to their veterinarians to see if they would be interested in speaking at an upcoming club meeting

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Paula Maidl

May 12, 2010

The May SAMS general meeting did not have a quorum, so no business was conducted, but there was a discussion of business. First, Larry Mackai led a discussion of the new Grand Champion title and point system that went into effect today at AKC shows.

The minutes of the March meeting were read.

Specialty Report:

Becky Holtzlider will handle the potluck on Thursday, with help from Jill Crisp. Pat and Gary Griffin will handle the Auction. Jill has the trophies all chosen and is collecting money, with a few spots yet to be covered.

Judges 2011:

Jim Shea, Judge Selection Committee Chairman, presented the judges for our 2011 specialty:

Thursday 8/25th: Mrs. Mary Kistner, WI Sweepstakes

Mr. Albert Holabach, WA Regular Classes

Friday, 8/26 Mrs. Martha Lagaschulte, CO Sweepstakes

Mr. Carl Vitner, GA Regular Classes

It was discussed that we could offer the BOB trophy for the Working Group Specialty on the following Monday of our Specialties for $25.

The application for Karen and Scott Reynolds was read for the first time.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kathy Mackai, Treasurer
In the absence of Secretary
